

Join Kurt Warner for the first annual “Kurt Warner’s Bracket Hoop-la” Win a chance at some cool autographed stuff and support First Things First!

“Kurt Warner’s Bracket Hoop-la” is an online college hoops bracket competition for the NCAA basketball tournament for the benefit of the Kurt Warner First Things Foundation. The winner will score an autographed Kurt Warner Super Bowl jersey, as well as a personal phone call from Kurt. Second and third place will receive a football autographed by Kurt Warner and a Super Bowl photo autographed by Kurt Warner, respectively.

To be part of this competition, simply make a donation to the Kurt Warner First Things First Foundation here. 100% of your donation is tax deductible as a charitable contribution and will support the outreach of First Things First.

- A $10 donation allows you to complete ONE bracket;
- A $25 donation allows you to complete up to THREE brackets.

Upon receipt of your donation, you will be emailed an invitation to the “Bracket Hoop-la” competition via CBSSports.com. (Be sure to enter the same email address when making your donation at kurtwarner.org and signing up at CBSSports.com!) This email will have log-in information and the password to join “Kurt Warner’s Bracket Hoop-la” group. You will be required to register at the CBSSports.com site in order to submit your bracket picks. Then, sign in anytime during the Tournament to watch scores and standings update LIVE, talk among group members via message boards and more!

The tournament is starting Thursday so don’t delay! All entry donations must be received no later than 11 a.m. EDT on Thursday, March 17th. Bracket submission cut off on CBSSports.com is Thursday, March 17 at noon EDT when the first games begin.

Thank you for joining the fun and supporting the outreach of First Things First!
