

MISSION: POSSIBLE!

SUMMER

APPLICATION

“This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs of God’s people but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God.” 2 Corinthians 9:12

INTRODUCTION:

Here’s the game plan!

The programs of the Kurt Warner First Things First Foundation are designed to share Jesus’ love and encourage others to do His work. The amazing adventure your group is about to embark on encompasses this principle. First Things First would like to provide you with an opportunity to decrease the trip costs for your group. The Foundation will provide scholarships to groups consisting of junior high, high school and college students traveling together during the summer with each group receiving up to $1,000 toward the cost of their service-based mission trip to benefit communities in the United States. This two-page application with requested information entered directly in this document, along with all attachments must be emailed to missionpossible@kurtwarner.org by 11:59 p.m. ET on April 1, 2014. In an effort to be responsible environmental stewards, mailed applications will not be accepted. Groups selected will be notified by email by June 1, 2014.

CRITERIA:

Who can apply?

First Things First is a non-denominational Christian-based foundation. Christian groups of any size, from any denomination and from any part of the country are welcome to apply. Groups may be formed by schools, organizations or churches and must consist of junior high, high school and/or college-age students (12-22 years old). Mission trips must be service-based (supplying both physical and spiritual needs) and benefit communities in the US.

Within six weeks of the completion of the trip, scholarship recipients will email missionpossible@kurtwarner.org with pictures and a summary of their trip. Organizations that fail to submit follow-up information will not receive consideration for future Mission: Possible! Scholarships.

ABOUT US:

Learn about us!

Retired NFL Quarterback Kurt Warner and his wife Brenda established the Kurt Warner First Things First Foundation in 2001 with the mission of impacting lives in a lasting way by promoting Christian values, sharing experiences and providing opportunities to encourage everyone that all things are possible when people seek to put "first things first."

Before you mail your application, make sure it's complete!

Do you match the criteria?

Group is Christian (any denomination is welcome to apply)

Applying for a group, NOT an individual (NOTE: If multiple groups from the same organization are participating in separate mission trips, each group must fill out its own complete application)

Group is traveling together (at least 50 miles) and spending the night away from home

Group is NOT traveling outside the United States

Mission trip is service-based, supplying spiritual and physical needs of God's people

Is your application complete?

All lines of the application are filled-in (Incomplete applications will not be considered.)

Have you included all of the attachments in your email?

Two essays from student participants

One essay from group advisor/teacher

Trip budget including a detailed breakdown of all involved costs, individual student costs, confirmed or anticipated grants and fundraising activities (See sample budget)

Formal or informal communication with organizer/work site host confirming trip details

Don't forget:

Applications and all attachments MUST be emailed to missionpossible@kurtwarner.org by 11:59 p.m. ET on April 1, 2014, NO exceptions.

To email a summary of the trip and photos within six weeks of the completion of the trip
